While there are many aspects of American life that we love, currently our nation is in a perilous position. Because we have chosen the way of sin rather than godliness, our nation is facing judgment. However, if we as the people of God stand up, speak up, and live out our faith and convictions with boldness, there is hope. We can no longer stay quiet and go our own way hoping that conditions will improve. The only way things will change is if we, the people of God, commit ourselves to live in obedience to Him and refuse to compromise our convictions. No matter what the cost, we must not yield to compromise by remaining silent.

America has become its own enemy, and her conscience has become dull and desensitized to evil. Today truth is whatever each person wants it to be, and a sense of respect and reverence for the things of God has been lost. Although Christians believe God's Word and want to live righteously, the society around us has forsaken the Lord. The ideals and values upon which our nation was founded have been taken away from us. What was once righteous and good has been surrendered to the pursuit of freedom to do whatever one pleases. However, there is still hope if we will wake up, face the reality of our perilous condition, and stand for the truth just as the founders of this nation did.

Second Chronicles 7:13-15 is God's promise regarding Israel's restoration after experiencing His judgment because of their rebellion against Him. Although this passage was specifically given to the nation of Israel, the principles in verse 14 can also be applied by Christians today. "If My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

The responsibility of intercession rests on Christians. Repentance begins with us, not the world. We are the ones who must humble ourselves, pray, seek the Lord, and turn from sin so God can revive His church and heal our land. May God forgive and bless America again.

Laborers together in Christ,

— Tony
