Dear Friends,

Hagar was a single mom who almost gave in to hopelessness and despair. Just maybe you find yourself in that situation as well, or you may know someone else who faces a similar situation.

The Bible says that Hagar was Sarah's personal attendant. After Sarah misguidedly tried to fulfill God's promise of a son by giving Hagar to her husband Abraham, Hagar became the mother of Ishmael. Hagar was forced to flee into the desert with her son. During that time, she ran out of water and felt that the end had come. But God had not abandoned her. We read that the Lord helped her see a well of water He had provided. It had been there all along, but Hagar only saw it with God's help.

God opened Hagar's eyes and she saw a well of water...and God was with the boy as he grew. (Genesis 21:19-20)

Being a single parent is very difficult to be sure, but God knows your situation, just as He knew Hagar's. Perhaps He wants to show you a "well" He has already prepared—something or someone to refresh and help you.

Please don't give in to self-pity or despair, but look to Jesus Christ every day for the hope and strength you need. He loves you and your little ones, and He will not abandon you.

Laborers together in Christ,
