Dear Friends,

We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way. (Isaiah 53:6)

Decades ago, Frank Sinatra made the song, "I Did It My Way," a smash hit. Then in the late 1970's the popular band, Fleetwood Mac, also had a runaway hit called, "Go Your Own Way." These were great pop songs to be sure, but they contained lousy theology. Life is full of decisions. Some of them are relatively minor, but others are major (whether we realized it at the time or not), and they can have enormous consequences.

Does God care about the decisions you and I make? Of course, He does—and the reason is because He passionately loves us and wants the best for our lives. When we head down a wrong path in life, the Lord grieves over our foolishness because He knows we are only hurting ourselves. He knows that this is our natural tendency, because we—like sheep—easily wander and stray from the only Shepherd who can guide and keep us safe.

What decisions are you facing? Don't rely on your own "smarts" or wisdom, or even on the wisdom of others. Instead, seek God's will and ask Him to guide you and show you His perfect will. Remember, His way is always best—always. God's promise is for you: I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go. (Psalm 32:8)

Laborers together in Christ,

— Tony
